Keynote Title: Balancing Student and Adult Wellness

Breakout Sessions Include:

- COMET Community Training (Changing Our Mental and Emotional Trajectory)
- Family Patterns and Adoption: A presentation for educators
- How to be resilient while focusing on vision and composure.
- The Internet and the Counseling Profession
- It's Real: Suicide in both Middle School and High School
- Panhandle Situation Table
- Practical Solutions: 5 Tools for Immediate Application
- Trauma Informed Classroom Practices
- Why aren't students using the skills I'm teaching?
- Youth Tobacco Prevention & Cessation Resources

KEYNOTE: JUDITH NORMAN,
MA, MS, LSC, LPC, RPT-S

Judith is an educator, trainer, consultant, and clinical supervisor. She is a co-founder and the lead trainer at the Synergetic Education® Institute. She is licensed as both a School and Professional Counselor and has worked at the intersection of education and mental health for over 25 years. Judith trains clinical and school-based mental health professionals and speaks and consults internationally on creating trauma-informed schools. As a District-Wide Social Emotional Learning Coach, Judith led her school district in implementing a "Thriving Schools Grant" aimed at advancing social-emotional wellness and behavioral health in school districts.

Judith created the Developmental Mindsets Paradigm,™ a model for working with educators from a developmental perspective. She created and teaches frameworks such as Learning Tools™ and Braindrops,™ tools for developing interoceptive awareness and self-regulation. She's created programming that supports the implementation of regulatory-focused, social-emotional, trauma-informed practices for students and educators in schools worldwide.

Judith is a Registered Play Therapist Supervisor and is a Certified Synergetic Play Therapy® Supervisor and Teacher. She is a Parent Educator, Certified in EMDR Therapy, and is trained in Mindfulness in Education.
