

No Small Matter: A Film Screening and Discussion

WHAT:

A series of 21 film screenings and forums with early childhood providers and teachers will be held across Nebraska in January and February.

WHO:

Home-based, center-based, and school-based early childhood professionals serving children from birth through Grade 3 are invited to attend the screening of the film No Small Matter, followed by a roundtable discussion.

WHY:

No Small Matter is a documentary that is designed to kick-start a public conversation about the critical need for high-quality early care and education. Following the film screening, event organizers will facilitate a discussion to gain feedback from those in attendance. Feedback on how participants see the needs of young children and their families and what is needed to meet those needs will be compiled and presented to the members of the Nebraska Early Childhood Workforce Commission. The commission is charged with developing a comprehensive plan for expanding and strengthening the state's early childhood workforce in late 2019.
